Mind Over Magick is a "magical spellbook" collection manga by Mine Yoshizaki. It was originally serialized in Futabasha's Comique magazine from 1992 to 2001, and collected into eleven tankōbon between 1994 and 1998. Its chapters alternate between "real-time" action-based stories and "historical" stories told by the characters of the spellbook. A spin-off original video animation (OVA) series Mind Over Magick: The Ultimate Successor, directed by Yoshiyuki Tomino, was made in 1996, with a run of five episodes. Plot The storyline of the original Mind Over Magick revolves around The Rune Emperor, a book of magical spells created by a man known as the Al Hazr. The Al Hazr created this book in order to find a way to control the Void; however, he abandoned this book somewhere in the past, and it was stolen by an evil man called Evilspell. Evilspell's goal is to reach the Void and absorb its powers, an event known as Void-Search. Evilspell, unaware of the fact that he is actually trapped in the Void, seeks out the Al Hazr's book and tries to use it for his own evil purposes. The storyline of the Mind Over Magick series proper begins when Evilspell takes control of the book. After he is defeated by the heroes of the spellbook and a very courageous young man called the "Sword Saint", Evilspell takes control of the void once again and tries to obtain the power of an ultimate weapon known as "Magic Destruction Sword". He calls upon the power of the Void in order to seal the heroes in a mysterious Magick Mirror, thus trapping them in a type of Purgatory. It is said that only the Sword Saint's uncle Mr. Taneu can free the hero's souls and hopefully prevent them from becoming victims of the Void. The main characters of the spellbook also vow to find the magic mirror and destroy it, which might thus allow them to return to the world from which they came. The characters of the spellbook also come across the city of Maharsh, a city which holds the key to the magic 3da54e8ca3
